OLD BUSINESS

- Berry Bannon reported that he picnic had great weather and was well attended, with about 40 planes and 75 people.

- Bowman Field Aviation and Military Heritage Festival, Oct 6 & 7 - Rick Tabb said that the EAA 5AT Trimotor will be attending, and the Chapter will have an opportunity to make some money.

- There was discussion about supporting several RV-12 builders in their planned trip to Oshkosh. A motion was made by Tom Hubbuch to donate $700 from the Gerry Mitchel YE Account for lodging and EAA admission to Keith Aultman, who is coordinating the trip. The motion was seconded by Jeff Smith, and approved by vote. It is expected that receipts for the expenses will be submitted after the trip, and Treasurer Berry Bannon will then write a check.

NEW BUSINESS

- Rick Tabb said that Crowdaddy Airstrip is for sale. A fly-out is planned on Aug 19 from 1-4 PM to visit the strip.
- Rick Mills reported he attended the Navion annual meeting in San-Antonio, Texas. He was able to visit some prominent aircraft collections in the area, including one with Glacier Girl.

The meeting was adjourned at 7:46 PM.

The post-meeting presentation was an informal visit to the shop to view the progress of the RV-12 project being built by students.
